FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF OUR LORD JANUARY 13th 2019 Year C

The Baptism of the Lord

The Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan is recalled and emphasised, although in different ways, by all the Evangelists, and was held in great importance by the apostolic community.

This event began the public ministry of Jesus.

The Baptism of Jesus at the Jordan is the anticipation of his baptism of blood on the cross, and it is the symbol of the entire sacramental activity by which the Redeemer will bring about the salvation of humanity.

“Christ is baptised and the whole world is made holy,” sings today’s liturgy; “He wipes out the debt of our sins; we will all be purified by water and the Holy Spirit” (Antiphon to the Benedictus, Office of Laud).

There is a strict relationship between the Baptism of Christ and our baptism. At the Jordan the heavens opened to indicate that the Saviour has opened the way of salvation and we can travel it thanks to our own new birth of water and the Spirit, accomplished in Baptism.

In Baptism we are inserted into the Mystical Body of Christ, that is, the Church, we die and rise with Him, we are clothed with Him, as the Apostle Paul often emphasised.

The commitment that springs from Baptism is therefore “to listen” to Jesus: to believe in him and gently follow him, doing his will.

In this way everyone can tend to holiness, a goal that, is the vocation of all the baptised.

(Extracts from Pope Benedict XVI / Magnificat)

Psalm:

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia!
The heavens opened and the Father's voice resounded:
“This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him.”
Alleluia.

Memorial Acclamation:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.
